"Every great man must come with a side of acorns."

Ugh, Senior year... Why must it end..? Sure, I like the idea of leaving school and actually starting my life outside of the education system, but throughout these last four (and a half) years in Harwich I've become so attached to the Drama department that my soul is practically embedded in the Music room. I owe an eternal debt to Rosemarie Richard for dragging me to the Drama department in the eighth grade. The amount of time and effort I've put into there thus far is more than most people can say, but I really think I could've done more. There are probably plenty of other people to thank too, like Ms. Donovan and Mr. Breski, as well as my friends and family, but by now the people I would thank already know that any help given was/is much appreciated. Thank you for everything.

Zach Blute

"A winner is someone who recognizes his God-given talents, works his tail off to develop them into skills, and uses these skills to accomplish his goals." – Larry Bird

As I look back on these past years at Harwich, I reflect on some of the best times in my life. From kindergarten to senior year it has been a blast. To my teachers and coaches, thank you for your inspiration and encouragement, I feel I have received a great education. I especially want to thank my family. Mom, thanks for always being there for me and being such a positive influence in my life. Dad, thanks for being my true coach both on and off the court and giving me the best advice. Jess, growing up with you has been awesome, you're the best sister ever and you deserve the best senior year! Nick, you're the best brother! I hope these next years are as good for you as they were for me. Boggs, love you man. Basketball and football have been great, bringing me tighter with a lot of my friends. Bob, John, Court and The boys; Jake, Joe, Bill, Chris and Hannah, I truly consider you all my best friends. Everyone else SW,BW,JN,DL,DC,DD,NG,CH,TM,ML,SE,EB,CH,HD,CC,KC,CA,WK,LF,JT,MM,RT,TB,NR,AS,SG,GS,TN,AN and anyone I missed, thanks for all the good times! Jess, Steve and Mike, the school is yours. "I love deadlines. I love the whooshing sound they make as they go by." – Douglas Adams

True, I only came here in my junior year. I barely know half of the kids in my class, even. But I'm glad I get to graduate from Harwich High School. Coming to this school has allowed me to create a few more friendships, some that I'm glad I was able to have in my life. Justin and Emily, You've introduced me to the wonderful world of Munchkin. Also, to my other friends; Kelsey, Emiri, Dawn, Madeline, Naomi, Charlotte, Cody, Kylie Shay, and Heather. Thanks to Douglas Adams, J.K. Rowling, Yuna Kagesaki, my idols. I might as well say thank you to my real family as well, since they are family after all. I'll say thank you to the Harwich GSA, and my teachers, and my stage manager Judy L'heureux, who all had to suffer with me for multiple years to get me to where I am. Also, A toast to Ms. Weekes. (Get it?) To all my friends, I love you all. Let's stay good friends. I want Harwich High to go down with a bang, with us as the last class of this school. Because this year, Christmas will be ours! <3

Well these four years have gone by quickly. I will take this time to thank my parents for their continued support. I transferred to Harwich in the middle of my high school experience. I appreciate the track and cross-country teams for their support. Thanks to all my friends who also were part of my support system. I don't know where to start, this moment feels so surreal. I'm pretty sure the first day of freshmen year was yesterday. Before I say anything; thank you. Thank You to absolutely everyone I ever met in these past four years. To my family, I love you all so much <3 Mom - you never let me forget that I am capable of doing anything I set my mind to. Dad - there is no one in the world that will ever teach me as much as you have in the past eighteen years. Bridget & Devon - I know that I am the product of our years together. There are no two people I would have rather shared my childhood with. To Luz and Sarah, you guys are the greatest! Thank you for reminding me every day that high school isn't about the grades you get, but the friends you made along the way. I know that I am a better person because I am friends with you two, and that we're going to be friends for the rest of our lives. To the Class of 2012, congratulations and here we go

Tyler Carlsen

"I don't know where I'm going, but I sure know where I've been."

As I look back on my time at Harwich High School I can't believe how fast the time has gone by. It feels like just yesterday I was walking into my first day of high school as a freshmen who was taller than most of the seniors. I wouldn't be where I am today without the never ending love and support of my parents and grandparents. Thank you for being my biggest fans and helping me gain strength from my illness. I'd like to thank Alicia and Patrick, my "big brother and sister," for being there whenever I needed to talk. Sam, Tommy and Kane, you three are like brothers to me and I'm eternally grateful for all the memories we've made together. I'd also like to thank Mrs. Donovan for getting me chance to preview my future career. And to all my friends: BMD, TM, HE, LA, BP, TH, ER, EB, MD, GC, SW. I wish you all luck in wherever you go in life and I'm so happy to have had the pleasure of knowing you all for these amazing years. Congratulations Class of 2012!

"Be more concerned with your character than your reputation, because your character is what you really are, while your reputation is merely what others think you are." John Wooden

These four years have gone by too fast and have held so many good memories, things that I know ill remember for the rest of my life. But I know I wouldn't of made it this far without family close friends, teachers and coaches pushing me through the entire way. Whether it's my Mom and Dad always offering to help with homework or studying, or someone making sure I'm staying on top of my school work and getting extra help. But the memories of being in the "same boat" as Jake Taylor and Danaïs making sure my work is getting done and the I'm organized. Bobby D and Jake M making every class we're in together hilarious and worth while. And the "never forgotten" times out of school with Tyler M where we have learned from our past adventures. (Remember, they always catch up to you!) And my little brother Matt, Definitely my best and closest friend, always putting up with whatever I go through and always being there, always willing to do just about whatever I ask him to do. Love you bro! And all of my other friends constantly making me laugh and making school actually fun. But from here I think it's safe to say that 2k12 has taken over! Swag.
NG,BM, JO,TM,MH,SD,JD,ZB. shout out to the old guy and many others!!

It's hard to believe that high school is coming to an end. These past four years have flown by faster than I ever imagined. Thanks to my family for always helping and supporting me no matter what. To my best friends- you know who you are, and I wouldn't be the person I am today if it weren't for all the memories we have shared. To my HTC Cross Country Family- I will miss the practices, parties (and tartar sauce making) more than you will ever know. To my pit band crew- jammin and playing frisbee with all of you has been a pleasure during the musicals. It has been a long but short past four years. This short statement isn't enough to accurately explain my true feelings. I had countless good times. I thank my friends, brothers and loved ones for everything they have done for me. I lost few and gained many. I hope to keep my brothers close throughout life's challenges. Together we can make the world a better place and I wouldn't want to do it without you all. Thank you for always believing in me, and having my back. "The greatest pleasure in life is doing what others say you cannot do."

Coming to Harwich High was for me one of life's surprises, because I thought that I was going to be the only kid without a friend, sitting alone in a corner, but since the first day, I already had a handful of friends that I still talk to even now. I want to thank my family, my mom, Mrs. Bourke, Mrs. Capen, Mrs. Blanchard, Mrs. Shedlock, Mrs. Chilaka, they all helped me going through a lot from day 1 to where I am right now, a senior graduating from high school. I also want to thank all my friends, Danais, Darnika, Allie, and everyone else that I've met during the years at HHS, all the boys from the football team who made me feel really part of the team, helped me understanding my assignments on the field. And my boys: Kevin, Manny, J.D, Alay, making this journey go by like a blink of an eye... so deuces ya'll, I'll see some of you guys around... HAITIEN PI RED!!!

"Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail."
Ralph Waldo Emerson

I never thought these past 4 years would go by as fast as they did. It seems like just the other day I was walking into HHS scared to death of what was to come, it turned out not being so bad after all. People always say "Your high school years will fly by" & you never believe it until your first day of senior year when you realize it's all ending, the feeling's so bitter-sweet. To the staff of HHS, thanks for everything. To my family, thank you for all your love & support & for never doubting my ability. You're always there to reassure me of how successful I'll be one day and you've helped me to become the person I am today. KC, LF, CA, SL, SW, HF, HD, PW & the rest of the class of 2012, I love you all & I wouldn't trade our class for anything. We've truly grown up together. The ups, downs, cliques, drama, laughs, tears; it's all in my heart forever, each & every memory. I will never forget any of you. Like they say, this is the end of the beginning & the beginning to the rest of our lives. 2K12-WE TOOK OVER <3

"I am where I'm supposed to be."

High school has been life changing for me. I have grown into the young woman I've always wanted to be. I've faced many challenges, physically and mentally, but I overcame them and have become stronger than ever. All I want to do in life is help others now. I've grown up with most of these kids since kindergarten, and it kills me to say goodbye to some of them. Thank you to the ones who helped me through the tough times. Especially my mom, my role model and best friend. I couldn't have gotten through all of this without you. And of course, Grammy. R.I.P. 4/1/09
L.A., S.W., A.K. I love you guys forever. The rest, you know who you are.

Lindsay Fader

I echo the words of wisdom shared by another senior: "God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and wisdom to know the difference."

These past four years have gone by faster than I ever could have imagined. There have been many ups and downs and I definitely couldn't have made it through without my friends and family. Mom; you are the most important person in my life. Thank you for always being there for me. John; Thank you for understanding me and loving me for who I am, you mean the world to me. Collin; you are the best little brother I could ever ask for. You are a good kid, don't let anyone tell you differently. I love you. And a shout out to all of my ladies; Sarah Wildman, Tina Cat, Emily Brouillette, Luz Arregoces, Hillary DeGroff, and Courtney Sullivan. You guys are the reason I wake up in the morning. I love each and every one of you to pieces, thank you for being the best friends I could ever ask for. And last but not least, a thank you to my cheer girls and hockey boys, I love you all. So 2k12, we're finally done, we made it. We took over.

"The worst thing in life, is wasted talent" -Robert De Niro, A Bronx Tale

Admittedly, yes I wished High School away. I suppose I am always longing for the next step no matter how much I get older. That does not go to say that I did not live in the moment as much as possible or that I didn't make the best out of each day that I could, but the lingering thoughts of what lie ahead seldom left my mind throughout the duration. High School tested my inter-disciplinary self in a way I could never have foreseen or prepared for. Yet the struggles I have faced and fought have, without a doubt, shaped my sense of self and life in ways that I can not conjure words to explain, and I am just as thankful for my failures as well as my struggles as I am for my successes. More than anything, I will miss my friends and the times we enjoyed in this town as kids. I understand this is not the end of all our relationships all together, but it is for some, maybe most. We tore this town apart, we brought it up, we went wild, we buckled down, we played ball together, we fought, we laughed, we hated it all, we were movers and shakers, we did it all. The next step is here in its reality, no more talk, it's time to do. Don't hold back or second guess my friends, I love you all, let's take on the world. The Boys-CN,JM,ZB,JD, and I guess HF-there lies a special place in my heart for each of you, may the road rise with us.

The past few years of my life just seem like a happy, amazing blur that I wish I could watch countless times like a movie, skip over a few things, but replay certain scenes again and again. High school was everything I could ask for, plus more. I met some amazing people along the way and created friendships that would never, ever be broken. HTCXC <3 Best moments of my life with you guys. I guess you'll have to find a new midget to throw into the cage next year. And I won't ever forget those friends I made during the track season as well :) Love you guys. I just want to thank my family, my teachers, my friends (you know who you are), and everyone else out there that helped me make my high school years the best they could possibly be. I wish everyone luck in their future. And just a little shout out to my sister, I'll miss you when I leave and I'll love you always. Make sure to kick some butt for me in xc.

Well, it seems we are now seniors; and yet it feels no different than as a freshman, just as ninth grade differed not from eighth. I have found that no book ends where another begins, it is just one sole tome. So now as we read the final lines, and anxious digits thumb corners of leaf, I say thus: Eat, Drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we turn a page. I would like to thank all of my teachers, both in and out of school, from kindergarten through senior year. There are too many to name. I especially thank those who have helped me to overcome the biggest obstacle I have yet faced. I thank the people of the United States of America, especially our service men and women, from both time past and present. My parents deserve the most thanks of any humans for instilling in me the values of "God, Country, Family, and Self." I have always had lots of family support, including my Grandparents and aunts. My best and most important teachers have always been my family. My final thanks I send to God for making all of these people to whom I am so thankful to and for making all other things; to him I owe my ultimate thanks.

These past four years of high school flew by. The only way I made it this far was the love and support from my family and friends. Thanks mom and dad for always telling me to never give up and go after my dreams. I love you both so much. Lisa Gould helped make this four years, the best four years. I love you my tech twin. Joining the HFH team was probably the best decision I have ever made. HFH girls taught me everything I know today. They were there for you on and off the field. Ms. Poore is a woman that I think all girls should look up too. She's a believer and a fighter. With all the stress at home and school, Eben was the one person that I could always go to. I love you hunny<3 Thanks so much for everything you've done.

I know that many people will exclaim how fast these years went by, but I think they went at exactly the pace they should have. There were fast times and slow, good times and bad, and they have all worked to make me into who I am today. And so did all of you guys, all of my friends here. There are several of you that I particularly appreciate: CJG, SPA, JKO, TEK, TASH, JXVD, CLB, SIO, and plenty of others that I forgot to list. I think that you are all pretty cool people. I want to particularly thank Mrs. Hemeon for a fun two years in math, Mr. Houston for an exciting year in history, Mr. Smeltzer for making Latin awesome, and Mrs. LeVangie, Mrs. Kelley, Ms. Richards, and all of my other teachers for being amazing at teaching their subjects. And finally thanks to my mom, dad, and MacKenzie for all of their love and support; without you guys I wouldn't be here now.

I am Michael Harris and I want to thank my family for supporting me during my four years at Harwich High School. I especially would like to thank my mom and dad for always helping me when I need it, and always being supportive of me even when I struggled. I would like to thank all my friends for being there for me even during all the hard times. I would like to thank my guidance counselor Mrs. Callagy for helping me keep my grades together, and always keeping me informed on what I need to do to graduate. Lastly, but most importantly, I would like to thank God for really helping get past some of the hardships I have had during my high school career. I have had a really good four years of high school at Harwich High and honestly if could, do it again.

Well, here it is, finally done with high school. There has been some good times and some bad, but in the end i'll never be able to do it all over again, so everything was worth it. I wouldn't have been able to get through these last 4 years without my Dad, you have been through a lot and you're very strong, and you have given me the inspiration to be successful. To my brothers Steven(shut up t-bag!), and Tony(you look asian in that pic) theres no words that can describe how much you have helped me, i love you. "It is better to be a failure at something you love than to be a success at something you hate."

Life is never easy for those who dream sometimes. What you want isn't always what you get, but in the end what you get is so much better than what you wanted. As I take a look at what I have, and I think of all I do to get it and remember it only takes one second to lose. You'll be surprised to see how far you can go in life, but you will never be content with what you have until you make peace with who you are. Every person you meet along the way touches your life in a special way.

A.G, N.H, A.S, S.G, M.J, K.L, L.D, A.P, C.J, Mrs. Cote, Mrs. Dooley, Mrs. Burk, Mrs. Capen and Mr. Heggi. I'll always remember you guys for supporting me along the years the good times and bad, you have made a difference in my life, and once again thank you.

I would mostly like to thank my family for the support and love and my teachers for wanting to help me even though I acted like I didn't need their help. I'm really going to miss the following teachers: Mrs. Cote, Mr. Cat, Mrs. Yarnall, and Mrs. Capen for helping me through high school, I learned a lot from you guys! I'm really going to miss my PA PALE KK Buddies, it's been fun singing that song with Luidgi, Kevin, and Joel. "Promise me you'll always remember: You're braver than you believe, and stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think." A.A. Milne

The quote I chose has a special significance to me; it was written down on a small piece of paper by my aunt (and running partner) after I finished my first 5k road race. I never saw it until she handed that exact same paper to me about 4 years later while I was at the start line to my first marathon. It showed me that she believed in me right from the beginning of my running career, and it also reminded me of how much I had accomplished over a very short span of time. In a way, this reflected my high school experience. Looking back on it, we, as individuals and as a class, have accomplished so much over a short period of time. Making these accomplishments possible for me were my friends and family. To every one of my friends, thanks so much for the good times and the memories. To my mom, dad and the rest of my family, thank you all for making me who I am today, I love you. I will continue to accomplish more with your support, and I wish the rest of 2K12 the best of luck in the future!

It's hard to believe that we are actually graduating this year and the class of 2012 will be broken up and gone their separate ways, but I just know that we will all have happy and successful lives. I would like to thank my mom for always being by my side through all the bad times. I love you Mom and I hope to make you proud. Thank you also to my loving grandparents. These past four years have been the most miserable yet the most memorable ones of my life; many hardships but also interesting experiences. Overall, there have been ups and downs, along with many unexpected occurrences. On that account, I mainly want to thank my parents who had to make difficult choices to offer me better opportunities, because if it weren't for their sacrifices, I wouldn't be where I am today. Also, I'm grateful for spending my last two years at Harwich High School. Honestly, I couldn't have picked a better place with such great teachers and classmates to help me mature. In these 4 years at Harwich, my experiences set me apart from my classmates and furthered my understanding that there really is no place like home. As excited as I am to begin the next chapter of life, I could never forget the town and the people that made me who I am today. Mom, Dad, Nick I love you guys senselessly, it's hard to believe that the three greatest people I've met live under the same roof as me. Rae I think about you everyday, you've shown me that nothing is promised, watch over me. My boys, shout out to all of you. RRBbaseball, what an amazing experience. It's a turning point when you find someone you love, it's a whole new world when the person you love has the power to drive you into becoming a better person. Elise, I cannot thank you enough for the things you've done for me. You my best friend and without question irreplaceable. I'll miss you Harwich, I'll always love this place.

"The difference between men and boys is the lessons they learn". Throughout my years at Harwich High School I have learned many lessons that have formed me into the young man I am today. Some for better and some for worse but every experience has taught me a lesson. There are many people that have helped guide me through my years but one of the most important is Mr. Bennett, he has always tried to be there when I had a problem or just wanted to say hi. I don't think I could have made it through high school without him. High school is one of the best times of my life and I will always remember the people and teachers that have made an impact on my life.

Finally, it's great to finally be graduating from HHS. Ultimately, looking back I'm going to sincerely miss this ancient building and all the good memories in it. Coming in I never would have thought that my high school career would be filled with so many good times from: Color Wars, Dodge ball, creating a Harwich Football team, fun teachers, fun classes, and just the normal mischief. Kicking back now, a senior, looking at the massive changes I've made I couldn't have done it without so many of these great people. Hopefully, I will stay in contact with so many people. Harwich High School class of 2k12, the last class of HHS, it feels great! So, thanks to everyone who was part of this amazing high school experience.

But, it feels like just yesterday I was a freshman walking into this old building anticipating graduation. Years have flown by so fast. Ecstatically, I was going to do the initials of all my good friends but, that's too cliché so forget it, they know who they are.

I'd also like to give a shout out to Dan Cook, Mike Harris, Tim Marciante, Evan Ramirez, John O'Connor, Tyler Meehan, Bobby McGillivray, Jake Malone, Nick Gonsalves, and my good friend Danaïs Santos. The final person I'd like to thank is my beautiful girl friend Sarah Moen, Love you babe!

"The only one who can tell you 'you can't' is you. And you don't have to listen." - Nike

These past four years went by quickly, but were nevertheless filled with many exciting experiences as well as conquered adversities. I would never have gotten through my high school career without the support and encouragement of my friends and family, who were always there to pick me up when I was down. I also want to thank my teachers and coaches for challenging me educationally and pushing me beyond my limits. Thank you all for helping me become the person I am today, and filling the years with fun and humorous memories. Coach Gonnella, thanks for all your support and for always being there for me. You will always be in my thoughts and prayers, and your enthusiasm and love of sports will always be with me whenever I play. I wish you all success and happiness throughout life's journey.

Keith Tilton

"Life passes most people by while they're busy making grand plans for it." - George Jung

Over the past few years I had a lot of troubles, and I never thought I'd actually make it this far. And for that, I have some people to thank Mr. Sowpel and Mr. M for all they have done for me and never letting me give up. Also I'd like to thank my family, especially my mother and father they were always there for me. And to all my friends over the years. CVM, BP, JAH, CR, JA, GB, CC, SG, AB

Jackson Van Dyck

"People don't think it be like it is, but it do" - Oscar Gamble

High School has been good, but it is a lot better to be out. I feel ready to go on to do bigger and better things than what I have done here at Harwich. I will look back on this time and laugh. I would like to mention CH CP WU TA NG.

"We're fools whether we dance or not, so we might as well dance."

Congratulations class of 2012! It's hard to believe that high school is over. These past four years have been amazing and some of the best times of my life. Mom- you're my best friend. You're the strongest person I know and you're such a huge inspiration to me. Dad- You have always been there for me no matter what I've done. You've let me make my own mistakes and I've learned so much from you. I couldn't imagine two better parents. Laura and Carl- you've tortured me throughout my whole childhood, but all that torture has brought us closer together. I know you guys are always going to be there for me. All my Friends- You guys have literally made my life so amazing. I can't imagine my life without you guys. Remember no matter what happens we can always turn to each other <3. Class of 2012- each and every one of you has made such a huge impact on my life, I couldn't ask for a better class to graduate with. We're on to bigger and better things!

Captains Tyler Meehan, Brett Johnson, and Tommy Birch are leading their team to a strong showing in the South Shore League and tournament berth. Football kicks off their season with a full varsity schedule of seven games, compared to two varsity games last season...Captains Billy Fleming and Nick Gonsalves have done a great job welcoming the players. Harwich-Chatham-Tech Cross Country...captains Shannon Grossman and Tyler Kane are working hard to continue to improve their "powerhouse". Harwich-Chatham field hockey, with a 10-1-1 record, clinched a tournament berth in the hunt for the South Shore League championship."

"On Friday, January 27, 2012, a new record was written in Harwich High School's books. Jen Gonsalves eclipsed Glen Rose's record of 1,594 points, which stood for 50 years, scoring 11 points against Abington to bring her total up to 1,602 points. Her scoring talent earned her a full ride to UMass Lowell. Jen will leave a lasting legacy behind her, that will inspire the athletes of the new Monomoy School District.
Congratulations Jen! "

WHEREVER LIFE TAKES YOU, NO WAIT, WHEREVER LIFE TAKES YOU FROM HERE, DO IT WITH CONFIDENCE. MY CLICHÉ QUOTE WAS GOING TO BE SOMETHING BY SOME BIG CAR GUY LIKE HENRY FORD OR TOMMY CHEVROLET. I THINK IT WAS "WHETHER YOU THINK YOU CAN OR YOU CANNOT, YOU ARE RIGHT", BUT I MIGHT BE WRONG, I KNEW I WASN'T GOING TO REMEMBER. NOW DON'T GO THINKING YOU CAN MARRY KG OR BE AN ASTRONAUT, LET'S KEEP IT REAL. JUST KIDDING. NO, SERIOUSLY THOUGH. ANYWAY, CONGRATULATIONS SHY SHY, EVEN THOUGH I WAS 5,953 MILES AWAY FOR MOST OF IT, I'M STILL PROUD OF MY LIL SIS.

-ALOHA

SHY-SHY ... FOR THE PAST 18 YEARS MY 1ST PRIORITY WAS PROTECTING YOU FROM THE BIG BAD WORLD...NOW I WONDER WHO WILL PROTECT THE WORLD FROM YOU? TEAR IT UP GIRL! LOVE, DADDA
